P. Bouser, at 2010 Jefferson street.
 Mr. Andrew McKissack was out of the city last week for a few days.
 Rev. Mr. G. P. Bouser made a trip to Union City last Saturday.

Miss Lavinia Harding, of Sycamore street, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Stout, of Chicago, has returned to the city.
 Mrs. Callie Lucas McDermott and her sister, Mrs. Amy Lucas Porter, teachers of Springfield, were recently the guests of Mrs. Wm. Franklin, of Main street, and Mrs. Blanche Grimes, of Smiley street. The ladies also spent some time with their relatives, Mrs. Lizzie Trainer and Mrs. Fannie Lucas while in the city.

Miss J. DeWitt Shorter, of the stenographic force of the Baptist Publishing House, was slightly indisposed the first of the week.
 Louie, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Thomas, of Jackson street, is suffering from a cold.

Col. Henry Anderson, who lived in South Nashville many years, moved to Sixteenth avenue, North, last week. He is more than 80 years of age, and his reminiscences concerning the times and things about this locality in antebellum days are deeply interesting. In telling the story of his running away from slavery to avoid a thrashing, he adds with relish, "And I forgot to go back."

Mr. Albert Cheatham, of Patterson street, who has been a student in Morris-Brown College, arrived in the city last week.

Mrs. Mollie Woods, of 626 Williams street, is indisposed.

Mrs. Evie Bush, of Williams street, was sick the first part of the week.

Miss Mamie Cheatham, of 709 Sevier street, is confined to her bed.

Mr. J. J. Jones, of Hot Springs, Ark., was in the city last week.

Mr. S. Evans Shirley made a short but very interesting address before the joint meeting of the City, Fisk, Walden and Meharry Young Men's Christian Associations at Lea Avenue Christian Church last Sunday morning.

JEFFERSON NOTES.

George Washington's birthday was celebrated by our school by the little folks. Original stories of Washington were read by Lucy Gooch, Sam E. Patterson, Isaac Gooch, George Dillard and Josephine Ross, Biddle Drake and J. H. Smith, R. J. Patteerson. Address by Miss Kittie C. Howse.

Prof. R. B. Butler, of Murfreesboro, visited here last week.

Miss Lizzie Reed is visiting her sister, Mrs. Anna Lowe, in Nashville.

Mr. George Louis is very sick at the home of his mother and father.

Mr. and Mrs. West Cloyd were the guests of Mrs. C. Black last evening.

Mr. Ed Lewis spent Sunday at home.

Mrs. Willie King has moved with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim King, Hickory Grove.

COPIES OF GLOBE WANTED.

In order to complete the files of the Nashville Globe it is necessary to have one copy of the following issues of Volume II: May 3, 1907; June 14, 1907; June 21, 1907; August 23, 1907. The same will be paid for if left at the office of the Globe Publishing Company, No. 447 Fourth avenue, North.

SERVICES AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

"Evangelistic Temperance" was the subject of an able, eloquent and helpful sermon by Rev. W. S. Ellington, pastor of First Baptist Church, Spruce Street, last Sunday. The speaker ridiculed the idea that the curse pronounced by Noah upon his son, Ham, has clung to the latter's descendants through all the ages from then till now. He clearly showed the absurdity of imputing to God the carrying out of the wrathful curse of a maddened old man, but partially recovered from a drunken spree. He said that the Negro people should guard themselves against the evil and ruinous effects of intemperance. He said that at last the liquor traffic, the monstrous evil of the times, the destroyer of lives and homes, the blighter of hopes and character, the arch-enemy of mankind, has been arraigned before the bar of public opinion with all of its uncovered sins upon its head and its days were numbered. By many it was considered one of the most instructive and powerful sermons the pastor has delivered for a long time.

Rev. Ellington, by special request of some young men, will deliver a sermon Sunday, March 1, on the subject "The Prodigal Son."

PRIZE WON.

Last Monday night there was quite an event among the members and friends of the Kayne Avenue Baptist Church, not because Prof. Hynes, with his great Fantasmagoria would be there, for everyone knows of his shows and have the greatest confidence in what he says; but the excitement was caused by the friends of the ticket sellers, each striving to have his friend become the recipient of the prize, which was a handsome gold watch. Mrs. J. C. Maddux was the lucky contestant.

WEDDINGS.*Jackson—Jamison.

Mr. John Jackson and Mrs. Ella Jamison were married on Tuesday, February 18, at 1522 Fourteenth avenue, North, by Rev. Albert Porter, pastor of Fifteenth avenue Baptist Church.

Davis—Thompson.

Miss Katie Thompson and Mr. Samuel H. Davis were married last Thursday night at the home of the bride's parents, 1101 Thirteenth avenue, South. Mr. Davis is a brother of Mr. Geo. S. Davis at the National Baptist Publishing House. Miss Thompson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Thompson, of this city.

Foster—Mathews.

On Thursday, February 20, was witnessed one of the most beautiful weddings that ever took place in Nashville. The nuptial ties were between Mr. Lindsley Foster and Miss Willie May Mathews at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. John Mathews, No. 1018 Seventh avenue, North. Rev. C. H. Boone officiated. The ceremony was performed under a wedding bell. The couple marched into the parlor to the sweet strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march. Several friends were present to witness the marriage. The contracting parties were the recipients of many useful presents. The menu was very elaborate. The evening was spent with much pleasure, especially in music and song. The bride is a sister of Misses Mattie and Novella Mathews and Mrs. Maggie Abston. The future home of the happy pair is at 609 Ewing avenue.

Oden—Armstrong.

A quiet but beautiful home wedding was that of Mr. Dave Oden and Miss Samuel Armstrong. While the sweet strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Miss Sadie Harding, who was charming in a gown of organdy over a pink foundation. The bridal party entered, consisting of the bride, Miss Samuella Armstrong, the maid of honor, Miss Hetty Fowler, the groom, Mr. Dave Oden, and the best man, Mr. Dave Boxley. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. H. Clark, pastor of Mt. Olive Baptist Church. The bride was beautiful in her gown of organdy with lace trimmings over silk and lace and carried in her hand a bouquet of white carnations. The maid of honor wore a gown of organdy with lace trimmings. Her bouquet was of pink carnations. After the ceremony cake and cream were served in abundance. The presents were many and useful and bespoke the high esteem in which the bride and groom were held. Mr. and Mrs. Oden will reside at their cozy home, 923 Sixteenth avenue, North.

GRAND LECTURER VISITS CITY.

Before the largest audience that has ever greeted him on an official visit to Nashville, Col. J. Milton Easterling, Grand Lecturer of the Knights of Pythias, delivered his annual lecture at the Pythian Temple, Wednesday night. The Castle Hall was well filled and as the eloquent Col. Easterling delivered his address, he was accorded rapt attention.

The lecture was by far the best effort made by Col. Easterling in this line, and his auditors showed their appreciation of the many practical suggestions by frequent applause. Following the lecture short talks were made by the following Grand Lodge officers: Dr. J. P. Crawford, Dr. R. F. Boyd, Dr. A. M. Townsend, Prof. A. T. Hill, Prof. W. F. Reynolds, Capt. R. E. Gee.

Dr. Boyd seemed to voice the sentiment of the whole gathering for he was greeted with tumultuous applause, when he said that if Col. Easterling was delivering the same high class lecture in other parts of the state and thereby helping to build up all branches of the Order, he hoped the Colonel would be re-elected year after year to his position. Col. Easterling and Secretary of the Endowment Board, Prof. A. T. Hill, of Pulaski, left each for his home city early Thursday morning.

WILLING WORKERS' CLUB.

The Willing Workers Club met in regular session last Monday night at the residence of Miss Lucy Donaldson, Thirteenth avenue, South. After the regular business was transacted, the president, Mr. A. L. Anderson, spoke on the good of the Order. Several made interesting remarks, after which ices were served and quite a jolly time was had. The club will meet with Mr. Jesse Voorhees next Monday night at his residence, 1004 Wharton street. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Miles, Mrs. E. M. Lawrence, Mrs. J. C. Lott, Mrs. O. W. Stokes, Miss Mamie Drake, Mrs. Janie Brown, Mrs. Lucy Amos, Mrs. Rachel Thornton, Mr. Rose Moore, Messrs. J. K. Campbell, A. L. Anderson, Misses Matilda, Minnie and Lucy Donaldson, Messdames Alice Martin and Lillie M. DeWees.

PIANOS FOR SALE

BEAUTIFUL STYLES IN MANY GRADES.

The finest piano that money and skill can produce, extra massive case, extra finely finished; made only in the finest fancy figured burl walnut and finely figured mahogany or quarter sawed oak; double veneered inside and out, is what the National Baptist Publishing Board offers in their many styles of pianos. Such as styles 5, 6, 10, 12 and 14. The tone of these instruments is unexcelled for its exquisite quality.

THE ARTIST UPRIGHT GRAND PIANOS

are pre-eminent. The tone is clear, liquid, mellow and well sustained and affords in all the registers a harmony clear and equal, and of that sympathetic nature which, under the hands of an artist, arouses the enthusiasm of the listener. The prices and terms are within reach of all.

A POTENT FACTOR.

The only musical instrument used in the rendition of the Folksong Cantata at Mt. Olive Baptist Church Wednesday night, February 19, and one of the potent factors in contributing to the success of that great Cantata was an Artist Cabinet Grand National Baptist Piano. This instrument proved just what is claimed for it by the manufacturers. The only instrument on the market, at the price that will conform with the voices of our people. It is doubtful whether the same effect could have been had with another instrument in rendering "Out of the Depths" the Folksong Cantata. All pianos sold by the National Baptist Publishing Board are doubly veneered case, made in fancy figured mahogany fine circassian, burl walnut, or quartered oak of the finest quality. For further information, call on or write the National Baptist Publishing Board, 523 Second avenue, North, Nashville, Tenn., R. H. Boyd, Secretary.

REV. H. F. TYREE AT HOME AGAIN.

Rev. Herman F. Tyree, of Hillsboro, Texas, reached the city a few days ago in company with his mother. The brilliant young minister has been sick in Texas since December, and despite his heroic efforts to hold up and stay at his post of duty, he was compelled to give up and come home to regain his strength. His many friends will rejoice to learn that he is convalescent, and hope for him a complete restoration of health.

Mrs. Edna Jones entertained her daughter, Samantha, with a birthday party at the home of Mrs. Wilson, 544 Ramsey street, last Wednesday.
